The Fourth District—A Close Fit.

In another column we publish the vote of the Fourth Congressional district between the candidates for Governor and for Congress, according to the returns in the office of the Secretary of State. It will be seen that Anderson beats Chrisman three votes, and Bell beats Magoffin one vote! This is decidedly a close fit, and will cause a thorough re-examination of the poll books of all the precincts in the district. The Louisville Democrat says, on the information of a friend in Frankfort, that the Clerk of the Boyle Court has discovered a mistake in the poll books of his county which may change the result in the district. We have had an intimation of this fact before, and if it be true, we trust the Boyle examiners will make the correction before a certificate of election is issued to Mr. Anderson. Indeed, the poll books of the whole district should undergo a most thorough examination at the very earliest moment. It is of common occurrence throughout the State that mistakes of a few votes are made upon poll books, and as the vote in the Fourth District is so very close, we are inclined to believe that a further investigation will change the result in some way.

Mr. Chrisman has made a gallant race, and we should regret to record his defeat for more reasons than one. If he is defeated, which we fear is the case, we have serious apprehensions that the vote of Kentucky will be lost to the South in the event the next Presidential election goes into the national House of Representatives. The delegation from Kentucky seems to be equally divided between the Democracy and the Opposition; and in the event of an election by the House, when each State has one vote to be cast by a majority of its Representatives, it is but natural to suppose that the Opposition will follow the precedent set by the K. N.'s, and throw away their vote upon some man of their own, like Fuller, and thereby deprive the State of any voice in the election of a President.

Had this subject been presented properly to the people, and had they seriously apprehended the election of as many as five Oppositionists, the result in the Fourth district, as well as several others, would have been different from what it now is.

Mr. Chrisman is not to blame for the result in his district. He has done his whole duty throughout the canvass, and has had more to contend against than perhaps any other of our candidates. His district has been flooded with money, and every species of fraud and corruption has been resorted to, to procure his defeat. Bell lived in the district, and extraordinary exertions were made to carry it for him as well as for Anderson. Chrisman had really to make the race against both; and although his district seems lost to us by three votes for Congress and one vote for Governor, he is entitled to the thanks and the sympathy of his party throughout the State.

The Next House of Representatives.

Although Kentucky and Tennessee have gone largely Democratic, at the late elections, on their State tickets, the Opposition have gained several members of Congress in each, owing to the Democratic divisions in some of the districts. The "South Americans," as they are called, will have quite a handsome force in the next House of Representatives, and will wield the balance of power in that body. Their strength may be computed thus:

Maryland	3
Virginia	1
North Carolina	4
Georgia	3
Louisiana	2
Tennessee	6
Kentucky	5
Total	24

The Democrats will have sixty-six Regular members from the South and twenty-six from the North, making ninety-two in all. There are six Independent Democrats elected. The House on the question of organization will be thus divided:

Regular Democrats	92
Irregular Democrats	6
South Americans	21
Republicans	11

The Congressional races have resulted as follows:

First district, Hon. H. C. Burnett, Democrat.
Second district, Hon. S. O. Peyton, Democrat.
Third district, F. M. Bristow, Opposition.
Fourth district, W. C. Anderson, Opposition gain.
Fifth district, John Young Brown, Democrat.
Sixth district, Green Adams, Opposition gain.
Seventh district, R. Mallory, Opposition.
Eighth district, W. E. Simms, Democrat.
Ninth district, Laban T. Moore, Opposition gain.
Tenth district, John W. Stevenson, Democrat.

The delegation from Kentucky will be divided—5 Democrats, 5 Opposition.

Congressional Districts—Official Vote.

We publish in this number of our weekly the full official vote of the 8th, 3d, 4th, and 5th Congressional Districts from copies of returns obtained from the office of the Secretary of State. The following are the majorities:

8th. Simms' majority over Harlan 67.
3d. Bristow's majority over Harlan 1,312.
4th. Anderson's majority over Chrisman 3.
5th. Brown's majority over Jewett 1,861.

The Inauguration.

The inauguration of the newly elected Governor of Kentucky, Mr. MAGOFFIN, will take place at Frankfort on the 30th of August next.

Kentucky State Officers.

At the late election in Kentucky the Democrats have chosen, by nine more than fifteen thousand majority, the following State officers: Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Attorney-General, Auditor, Treasurer, Register, Superintendent of Public Instruction and President of the Board of Internal Improvement. These officers are chosen for four years. The Democrats had previously elected the Clerk of the Court of Appeals, the State Printer, and the Superintendent of the State Prison. For the first time in thirty years Kentucky will have an entire board of Democratic State officers, a Legislature Democratic in both branches, and two Democrats to represent her in the Senate of the United States. She is completely and thoroughly redeemed.

The Legislature.

In another column we publish a full and correct list of Senators, and a list of Representatives, as far as heard from. The following is the probable division of parties in the next Legislature:

STATE SENATE.
Democrats	24
Opposition	14
Democratic majority	10
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.
Democrats	59
Opposition	41
Democratic majority	18

The Democratic majority on joint ballot will be not less than twenty-eight, a gain of six over the last Legislature.

ALABAMA ELECTION.—Alabama has again elected an entire Democratic delegation to Congress, as follows:

First District—James A. Stallworth; 300 majority.
Second District—James L. Pugh.
Third District—David Cloyd; 200 majority.
Fourth District—Sydenham Moore.
Fifth District—George S. Houston.
Sixth District—W. R. W. Cobb.
Seventh District—J. L. M. Curry.

Pugh and Cloyd are new members. All the others were members of the last Congress.

Andrew B. Moore, Democrat, is re-elected Governor by a large majority.

POST-OFFICES DISCONTINUED.—The following post-offices in Kentucky have been discontinued by the Postmaster General:

Elijah's Creek, Boone county; Clover Hill, Greene county; Claiborne, Hardin county; Falls of Harrod, Jefferson county.
NAME CHANGED.—Belt's Fork, Lawrence county, to Riff's Cross Roads.

Rev. J. P. Safford was installed, on Tuesday last, Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Piqua, by the Presbytery. Dr. Monford, of Cincinnati, preached the sermon, the Rev. Mr. Spence presided and gave the charge to the Pastor, and Rev. Mr. Galbraith to the people.

It will be seen from the advertisement in another column that the 22d session of Mrs. Runyan's school will commence on the 5th of September. Mrs. R. is so well known here that it is unnecessary to say anything further.

The official vote of Virginia in the late gubernatorial campaign is announced, after a very long delay. The vote stands 77,229 for Letcher, and 71,427 for Goggin; electing Mr. Letcher by a majority of 5,802.

BRETTAL MURDER.—On Thursday, an Irishman by the name of John Logue killed another Irishman by the name of John Moran. Logue knocked Moran down and then kicked and stamped him to death. This brutal affair occurred on Water street, near Logan's Row. It is supposed that probably an hour had expired before the alarm was given, as the man was cold when the officers reached the spot. A woman, who witnessed the transaction, was tranquilly nursing her child near the body of the man, and when asked where the murderer was, responded that he had gone for the doctor. He, of course, made his escape and has not yet been heard of.—Lex. Ob. & Rep., 6th.

Dr. Abston, of this city, assures us that he has tried the following cure for corns, and found it completely successful:

Take a small quantity of toilet soap and bind it on the corn, and in the course of three or four applications it will become softened to such a degree that it can be picked out by the roots with the fingers.—Paducah Herald.

Dr. R. H. Stanton is elected Commonwealth's Attorney in this Judicial District. We have not returns from all the counties, but think there is no doubt of Stanton's election by a decided majority. He outran the State ticket in every county heard from.—Meyn. Express.

[For the Yeoman.] Hon. L. W. Andrews' His Promised Resignation of his Seat in the Senate.

FLEMING CO., Aug. 6, 1859.

EDITOR YEOMAN: In your estimate of the probable state of parties in the Senate of Kentucky, you have overlooked a fact bearing on the question, and from which we anticipate a difference of two in the relative count in favor of the Democracy. The fact alluded to is, that the Hon. Landaff W. Andrews, (better known as Wat. Andrews,) the Opposition Senator (elected in 1857 by the Know-Nothings) from the district composed of the counties of Fleming, Nicholas, and Rowan, in a public speech at Mount Carmel, in Fleming county, on Friday next preceding the late election, pledged himself, in a certain contingency, to resign his seat in the Senate. That contingency was the election of H. B. Dohys, the Democratic candidate for the House of Representatives. The contingency, on the happening of which Mr. Andrews pledged himself to resign, has actually happened; for Mr. Dohys has actually been elected. A new election, therefore, for Mr. Andrews' successor must be held ere long; for his resignation, if not already executed, will doubtless be duly forwarded to the Governor. Should any delay in transmitting the resignation apparently take place, it is believed it will only be till Gov. Magoffin shall be inaugurated, from the fear that the Know-Nothing Governor, Morehead, might be inclined to ignore the act. But there will be ample time in which to elect a new Senator, after Gov. Magoffin's inauguration, in good season to take his seat. The Democracy are already prepared for the contest, and will lose no time in looking round for a candidate, as their general preference has been already indicated in behalf of Charles M. Fleming, a gentleman of high character, ability, and popularity, who will handsomely beat any Oppositionist venturing in the race. You may entertain no doubt whatever of Andrews' firm determination to resign, and thus create a vacancy to be filled by a Democrat. His pledge was too solemn to be reconsidered or recalled. He made it openly, voluntarily, and with such evidences of deep earnestness, sincere emotion, evinced by copious tears in the sight of a large assemblage of men and women of both parties, that every one was fully persuaded of the good faith with which he volunteered the pledge. After so signal a manifestation of his purpose, it may be safely assumed, entirely to his credit, too, that he is unwilling to misrepresent his constituents, and that, sustained by the approbation and confidence of the people, his seat in the Senate has no longer any attraction for him; but, on the other hand, would prove a torture rack.

When Benedict swore he would die a bachelor he did not think he would live to get married; and so it has been said that when Andrews declared he would not again take his seat in the Senate, he did not believe Dohys would be elected; but this is only a witty effort on the part of Andrews' admirers to induce him to ignore his pledge, which he cannot but regard as more funny than moral. The effort, however, will not be successful; for whatever may be thought of Wat's politics, Mr. Andrews is an earnest and upright man, who will vindicate his personal truth and honor by the faithful redemption of his voluntary pledge. Nobody hereabout indulges the slightest doubt of this. So you may confidently anticipate his resignation, prepare for a new election, and revise your political catalogue by adding another Democratic Senator, in place of an ex-Know-Nothing Oppositionist, resigned, which will make a difference of two in the count of the relative strength of parties.

CARMELITE.

[For the Yeoman.]

HARRISBURG, MICHIGAN CO., KY., Aug. 1. S. I. M. MAJOR—DEAR SIR: Allow me a small space in your very valuable paper. A woman occupying a public position as a preacher or teacher of the people, I deem it requisite to give my views before I visit the Capital of this State, that the citizens of Frankfort and vicinity may know that our subjects are "House Education," not "Woman's Rights."

Early education does not consist merely in the alphabet and reading books. It is the thoughts, the intelligence that is to be educated. It is a mother's voice, in her look of pleasure, and her smile of approbation; in a father's solicitude and the confidence his superior wisdom should inspire. It is the daily voice of life at the domestic fireside, and the judicious exercise of parental authority. Its real high object is to give to children recourses that will last as long as life endures. Habits that will ameliorate the condition of life, repress evil passions, and direct aright sentiments and affections; and occupation that will give life to intelligent faculties, develop talent, sharpen curiosity, and encourage industry and perseverance. All these influences are constantly educating the youthful mind. Methinks I hear the child of an intelligent and refined mother exclaim:

"My Mother's voice! how oft it comes,
Like music on my lonely hours;
Like healing song on wings of love,
Or dew upon the unconscious flowers.
Long I sought her healing power,
While pleasures pulsed madly,
But in the still unbroken air,
Her gentle tones came to me by,
And years of sin and manifold grief,
And leaves me at my mother's knee,
Mothers, take encouragement. "In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thy hand, and great joy shall be brought upon thee if thou wilt only extend a proper influence in the domestic circle."

I remain, the public's obedient servant,
E. A. MONROE.

SALE OF A WHITE WOMAN TO NEGROES IN MASSACHUSETTS.—We clip the following item from the New Bedford Times:

We have reliable authority for stating that a white woman was sold in this city the other day to a negro for the sum of $50. She remained in his service for a day and a night, and then returned by underground railroad to her master. He sold her shortly afterward to another negro for the sum of $80, each down. This selling of white women to negroes is not occasional, but is almost an every day transaction, as we have ascertained after some little inquiry. As a veteran but delinquent town-crier, "Tom Williams," used to say, so may with faithfulness be said now—"Gid along live; you is just as good as us."

There is no such slave degradation in the whole South, as will compare with doing on some of our own streets—reckoning up from the street that runs parallel on the East to No. 1.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A few days ago the wife of Mr. David Courtney, of this county, was instantly killed by the falling of a tree. It appears that Mr. Courtney and some of his children were engaged in clearing up a piece of ground, burning brush, &c., when a tree caught fire about the time it was ready to fall from burning. Courtney left the house and proceeded to the clearing. She was not perceived by her husband until she had come under the burning tree—Mr. Courtney called to her to run, but too late; the tree fell across her, crushing her to death. She leaves an infant and four children motherless.—Augusta (Ky.) Sentinel, 4th.

The Race for the Senate.

As we anticipated, the contest for the Senate in this district has been determined in favor of Dr. John M. Johnson, the Opposition candidate. His majority is about 75 in the district.

We shall not undertake to narrate the cause of the result. It must suffice that the Opposition carried a large number of the Democratic party at C. H. Huey's candidacy, was deep-seated and ineradicable, and they refused to vote for him. Amongst those thus withholding their votes, were some of the very best Democrats in the district.

We reiterate our expressions made in the Herald heretofore, that this is a state of things deeply to be deplored; but it should be a lesson for the future, which all should ponder upon, and which should teach prudence, forbearance, subordination to party usages, and the best efforts of all towards party harmony and union.

This is no party triumph of the Opposition; nor does it indicate any loss of strength upon the part of the Democracy. An examination of the vote for the State ticket will demonstrate this.

We have no doubt but that the Democratic majority of this Senate district, when fully brought out, approaches to 300, and whenever it acts in union, upon a party nominee, we feel sure this result will be exhibited.—Paducah Herald.
